Footballers Rebuild for 1959

The 1958 season was mainly one of rebuilding for the Washington football team. Not only were four veterans on the disabled list for most of the season, but the Eagle team was composed mainly of inexperienced players.

The first game of the season had the Eagles encountering the Polytechnic Parrots. Although the passing of Andy Salis sparked the Eagle team for four touchdowns, Washington nevertheless was edged.

Powerful St. Ignatius was the Hilltoppers' next opponent. The fabulous running of Ron Tocchini and Mike Doherty ripped the Eagles' defenses to shreds. Tocchini blasted through for three TD's, as St. Ignatius won by a decisive score.

After giving the Lowell Indians a six-point edge in the second quarter, Washington scored four touchdowns in a row; but the end of the game found the Eagles the victor by only five points, as the Indians rallied for two TD's and two PAT's! The outstanding players for the winners were John Murio and Andy Salis, who tossed two touchdown passes.

The bucking Mustangs from Lincoln were met by Washington in the next contest. The first TD of the game was scored for the Eagles by Ed Binetti on an 82-yard romp. But this success was short-lived as the Mustangs rallied for five straight six-pointers to take the event by a decisive score. Don Briemle starred for the winners.

Unable to stifle a Sacred Heart Irish rally, the Eagles lost their fourth game of the season by four points. Washington achieved their lone touchdown when Ron Eckelhoff bucked over from two yards out after an Andy Salis to Rick Benadom 23-yard pass had set it up. But the Irish came up with two straight TD's, with slick quarterback Dennis O'Keefe leading the way.

With Frank Mangiola tallying two touchdowns, the Balboa Buccaneers downed the Eagles by that same margin. It was the Pirates' day from the start, as they jumped to a 12-0 first quarter lead. Salis scored the only TD for Washington.

The Galileo Lions slaughtered Washington, and, simultaneously, dumped them into the cellar. The victors were led by Chuck Modeste, while Al White and Keith Someya sparked the losers.

Racking up only one touchdown for the fifth straight contest, the Eagles were edged by Mission by a single conversion. The Hilltoppers' Dave Kinzie reached the goal on a one-yarder with 26 seconds left in the second quarter. Ray Brown broke up John Murio's try for a PAT. Joe Batiste scored in the final period for the Bears. Joe Walker converted successfully.

Though finishing with a below-par 1-7 record, the Eagles are looking forward to a fine 1959 season. A partial list of the varsity members for next year includes: Jim Carlsen, Bill Silvia, and Jim King, ends; Ron DeLeon, Claude Shipp, and Keith Someya, halfbacks; Barry Friedman and Al White at fullback; Kymond Gee, tackle; Phi Aissa, Jim Masuda, and John Limneos, guards; and at the quarterback slot, there will be Andy Salis and Jerry Morrell.

Varsity Does Well

Up to press time, the Eagle baseball team had o 3 and 2 record with three games left to play.

The Eagles, sparked by Al Sutter, had a very good chance of making the playoffs, and with a little help from the pitchers, could have gone on to the championship.

The batsmen were victorious over Galileo 4-3, Lowell 8-3, and Poly 1-0. They lost two well-played games to St. Ignatius and Sacred Heart, 4-3 and 4-2.

The remaining games to be played are Balboa, Lincoln, and Mission. If the Eagles played up to par, they had no trouble with Lincoln or Mission. But it took a real strong effort to down Bal.

Other big men on the varsity were pitcher Arnie Covarrbias, catcher Mike Blum, first basemen Larry Bain, second baseman Tony De Felippo and third baseman James Burke. The outfield consisted of Jim Masuda, James King and Donald Mori.

JV's Get Experience

This year, up to press time, the JV's had played five games and had lost them all. It is just one of those seasons when a completely new group of sophomores just couldn't get together.

The JV's fought very hard in every game, but the opponents' base hits and smart ball playing were just too much for the inexperienced youngsters. With a few more gomes under their belt, this same JV team could develop into a strong varsity nine.

The losses were to Sacred Heart, Galileo, St. Ignatius and Lowell, while the team drew proctice game decisions over Westmoor, Copachino and San Rafael.

The star pitcher on this team was Willy Holman. Leading the batsmen were little Don Smith, left field, and John Loustau, the capable right fielder.

The JV's are under a new coach this year, Mr. Ruane. Mr. Ruane took over the coaching chores from Coach Domecus, who succeeded Mr. Madfes in the varsity.

Swimming Teams

Always a winning team, the Odane-caached swimming graup was having a gaad seasan by the time this stary went ta press. Of the three league meets they had participated in, Washingtan's three squads all had the identical recard af twa wan and ane last.

In the cantest against Sacred Heart the Eagles prevailed. The scares were: varsity, 49-28; 130's, 55-16; and the 120's, 58-9. Washingtan alsa defeated the Balbaa Buccaneers in all three divisians: varsity, 48-38; 130's, 47-20; and the 120's, 48-15.

The next meet was ta be with the highly tauted Wildcats af St. Ignatius. If the Eagles were ta tame the mighty 'Cats, they were ta scale the ane abstacle in their path ta the city championship, but the Wildcats systematically taak all three classes: the varsity by 58-18, the 130's by 45-23, and the 120's by 48-15.

After they had paddled against St. Ignatius, Washingtan's mermen vied against five ather schaals. Here are the schaals they played and the dates af the meets:

April 28, Lawell; May 1, Galilea; May 5, Paly; May 8, Lincaln; and May 14, Missian.

The fallawing bays were standauts all thraughaut the seasan: Bill Sakavich, Denis Imazeki, Kevin Miles, wha were all backstrake specialists; Rad Jahnsan and Al Perkins, diver; Jim Carlsan, breast straker; Mike Prichard, fly straker; and Mike Leary, free styler.

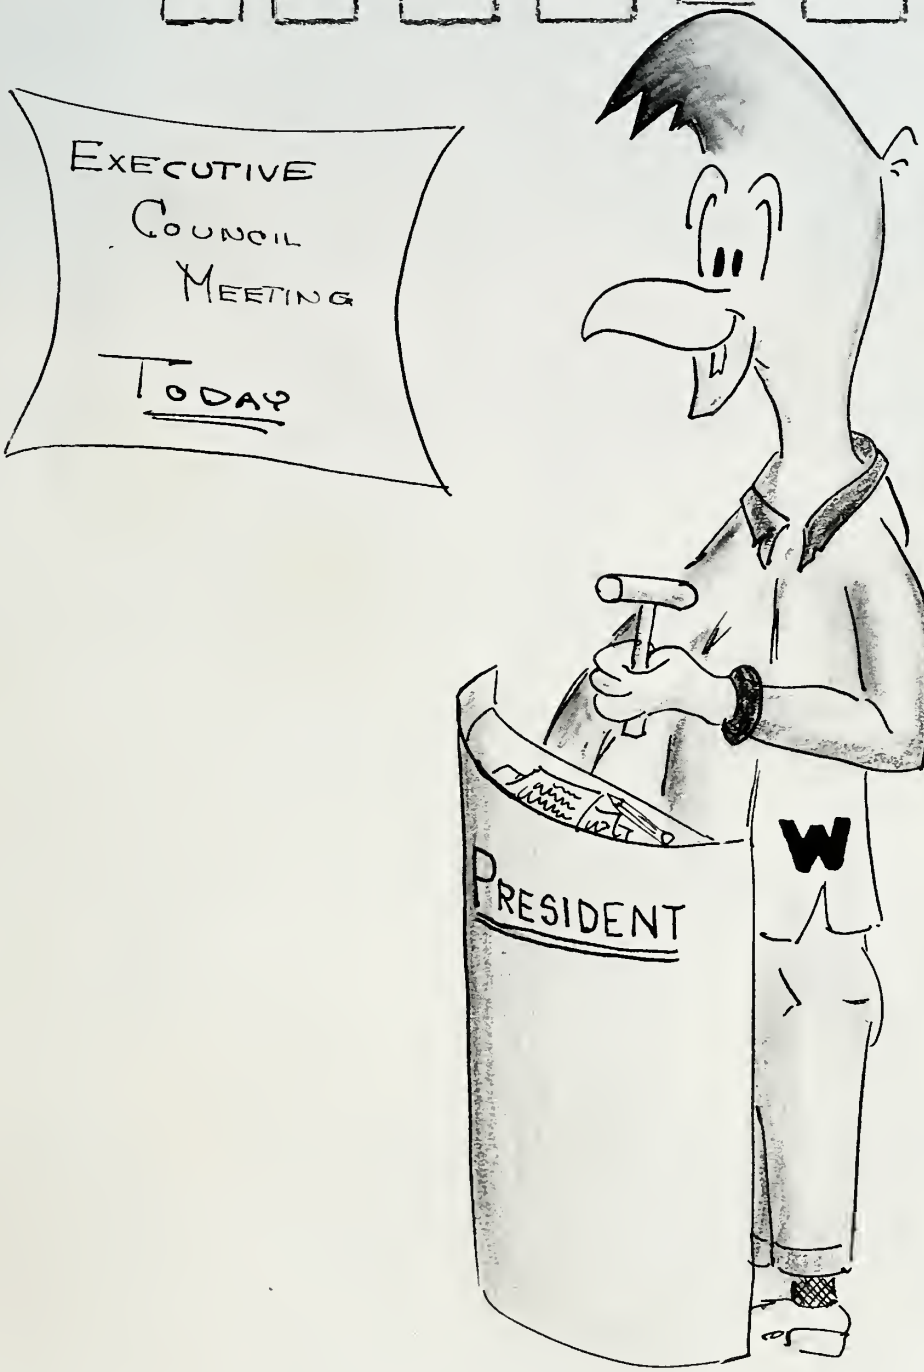
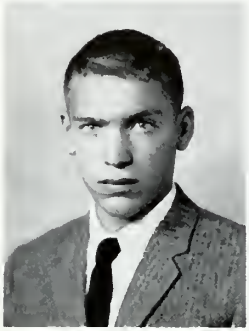
STUDENT BODY



Student Body Officers Fall 1958



BILL GOLDSMITH
PRESIDENT

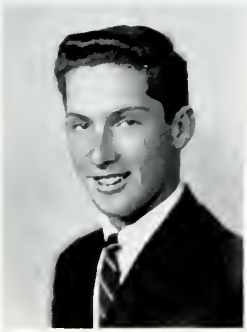
Bill served Washington as one of the best student body presidents ever. He was always seen working hard and helping people when possible. His good personality helped him to win many friends and gain respect of the students and faculty during his second term as a student body officer.

CHRIS LEASE
VICE-PRESIDENT

Some of the best dances ever presented at Washington were planned by Chris, student body veep. This extremely friendly gal was well liked by all who knew her. All activities planned by the vice-president turned out well, showing what a good and hard-working person she was.

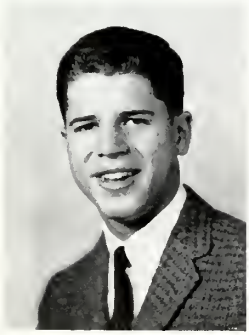
MARTY GOLDROD
SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT

Marty was another capable member of this successful group of student body officers. In his second term as an officer, Marty proved he could fulfill his obligations well and proved to be another excellent officer.



BARBARA MITCHELL
SECRETARY

Being secretary is one of the most difficult jobs available but Barbara certainly showed her capabilities in handling her job with complete success. She was a joy to everyone with her friendliness and always smiling face.



JEFF LLOYD
TREASURER

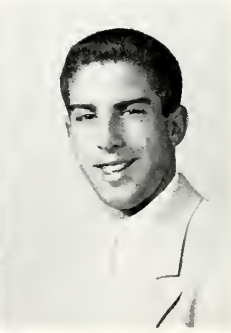
100% student body membership was once again reached at Washington under the encouragement of Jeff. In his first term as an officer Jeff proved to be a great worker. He added many helpful suggestions.

MANUEL HARRISON
ATHLETIC MANAGER

The ticket selling of the Fall term was under the capable leadership of Manuel. He did a fine job, and delivered newsy broadcasts to the school. He, too, was another fine worker during the term.

ED KRUG
CUSTODIAN

Eddie fulfilled his job exactly as head trophy-polisher and mimeographer. He was always around offering many new suggestions and ideas. This custodian was very well liked and did a good job as a student body officer.



DON D'ANGELO
YELL LEADER

Don did an even better job in his second term as yell leader and led Washington to another victory by once again capturing the rooting section award at the Pageant. He never stopped running around and yelling at the games, keeping our school on top with its great spirit.

Student Body Officers Spring 1959

MARTY GOLDROD
PRESIDENT

Morty went up the line of student body officers from custodian to 2nd veep to president. He did a great job in all and really proved himself to be a good and capable leader in his term as president. A hard-working person, he gained respect of all.

MARGARET POYNTER
VICE PRESIDENT

Maggie put on tremendous and different dances during her term as a student body veep. The decorations were always plentiful and different from the usual. With her originality and many ideas, she really proved herself to be a great officer.

ED KRUG
SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT

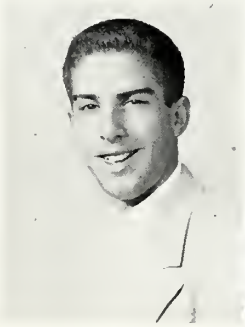
Eddie did an outstanding job in his second term as a student body officer. He really worked to strengthen co-board and make it a more important body. His many suggestions aided in making the Spring '59 term a great one.

JUDY SKINNER
SECRETARY

During her term as secretary, Judy never sat still once. She was constantly running around offering suggestions, passing out minutes and letters, and doing numerous other jobs. She did a great job and fulfilled well the difficult position.

DON D'ANGELO
TREASURER

Even though we did not reach 100% student body membership, a complete 100% effort was put out by Don during his term as treasurer. He worked hard in all activities in which he participated and was a success in all his endeavors.



DICK THUE
ATHLETIC MANAGER

Dick provided newsy broadcasts and kept the school up to date on all school sports. He did a good job of selling tickets to all games and other sports activities. He worked hard with the other student officers.

PAT WATKINS
CUSTODIAN

Being the first girl custodian was quite a challenge for Pat but she did a terrific job. She always had the banner up at games, kept the trophies polished well, and was always seen with a smudge of mimeograph ink on her. This peppy gal was another fine student body officer.

FRED CHERNISS
YELL LEADER

The fact that Fred was always yelling was easily proven by his always hoarse voice. This first time student body officer had experience of yell leading in his previous terms as assistant yell leader. He did a good job and led Washington High School to many great victories.

The Term Play

"The Curious Savage" is the story of Mrs. Savage, a woman whose husband has died, leaving her a tremendous amount of money. She uses the money to establish a memorial fund for foolish causes such as sending for some soil from Italy for a lonely Italian farmer.

Her husband's children: a senator, a judge, and an extravagant woman, want the money for themselves; therefore, they place Mrs. Savage in a rest home, saying that she is crazy. While she is there, she becomes fond of the other patients, and they all engage in crazy antics. Meanwhile, her husband's selfish children are searching frantically for the bonds which they cannot find anywhere. Finally, Mrs. Savage produces the bonds which she has hidden in the head of a teddy bear which she carries with her all the time. However, with the help of the nurse and the patients, Mrs. Savage is able to keep the bonds. She is then able to leave the rest home and do whatever she wishes with the money.

The May Festival

5

On May 22, 1959, the student body of George Washington High School was in a state of excitement. The day began with a student rally in the morning and a crowning of the May Festival Queen. The rally took place in Exotica, a ficticious Oriental paradise. The Emperor, portrayed by Don Rolfs, and his left-hand man, portrayed by Galen Cole, gave the students many good laughs.

The double lunch with stunts in the stadium, food booths galore, and the dunking of the Lettermen proved to be an enjoyable part of the day.

The faculty rally held in the afternoon brought squeals of delight from the girls when Mr. Collen sang his song. Miss Lynch and Mr. Donovan almost brought down the house with their duet.

The day was climaxed with the May Festival Carnival in the evening in both gyms.

Principal's Message

There is no question thot we ore now in o fostchonging world. For centuries people hove thought of the physicol world as consisting of mony ports—oceons, continents, islands, climatic zones, ond so forth. The humon hos been thought of in terms of notions, longuoges, customs, religions, ond roces. Todoy we hove o new reolity—thot of o physical oir world which hos no borriers or boundories, ond no stotic physicol divisions. In spite of this new reolity, the separotions on the eorth's surfoce continue to dominote ottitudes toward world problems. People the world over demond o solution to the problem of facing universal relotionships.

Monkind is focing its greotest test in history. Con mon go one step further in thot old conquest, the conquest of himself? Could there be o birth of o new symbol: World Citizenship.

You young people obout to groduote con do much to develop this ideol of one world. Your ottitudes ond octions should force us to realize thot only the greotest efforts of the spirit, the most generous ottempts of the heort, can ond will sove the world from destruction.

Class History

When the future seniors of Spring '59 came to Washington, they were met by their sponsor, Miss Mahoney. During their first term at Washington, the sophomores collected money for shrubs to plant around the school. These shrubs were planted by the class members in their high sophomore year. As low sophomores, the students planned the P.T.A. dinner.

Plans for the Junior Day, the Junior Day Dance, and the Junior Prom were made. Both the Junior Day and the Dance, "Hit andRun Affair," were highly successful. Everyone enjoyed the Prom, "Magic Moments," which was held at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel. And for the first time, the high juniors prepared their May Festival booth.

The P.T.A. drive and the completion of the school history were done in the low senior year. Also the low seniors served at the Senior Breakfast. In Spring '59 the low sophomores were met by the high and mighties at the Senior-Sophomore Reception, Hi-Lo. The high seniors put a lot of work into their Senior Day rally, which had numbers from famous musicals. All in all, both the Senior Day and Dance, "Stairway to the Stars," were just great. Everyone enjoyed the wonderful Senior Prom, "Stardust," at the Surf Club.

At the Senior Breakfast most of the students seemed sad, since it wos the last time before graduation that they would see many of their school friends. The final event of the year for the seniors was the graduation ceremony at 8 p.m. in the Opera House on June 9.
